Practical information on hemodialysis, hemofiltration, peritoneal dialysis, and apheresis is featured in this journal. Recognizing the critical importance of equipment and procedures, particular emphasis has been placed on reports, drawn from a wide range of fields, describing technical advances and improvements in methodology. Papers reflect the search for cost-effective solutions which increase not only patient survival, but also patient comfort and disease improvement by prevention or correction of undesirable effects. Advances in vascular access and blood

Hereby, the Author submits the "Manuscript" to Karger Publishers for the purposes of potential publication after peer-review. The present statement does not dictate any copyrights or licensing agreements; this will only be defined should the manuscript be accepted for publication. During the review process, all rights related to the Manuscript remain with the author.

The Authors declare that they agree to the following:

✓ By submitting your manuscript to this journal, you confirm that your manuscript conforms to the requirements outlined in the journal's Guideline for Authors. (required)

✓ By submitting your manuscript to this journal, you acknowledge the costs for publication as outlined in the journal's Guideline for Authors and accept that, should your submission be accepted for publication, the costs for publication will apply. (required)

✓ By submitting your manuscript to this journal, you warrant that you represent that you are permitted to publish the submitted manuscript and that you have the authority to act on behalf of all co-authors and will ensure that all co-authors confirm this using the verification link in the submission confirmation email sent out to all authors, or via their author overview in this submission system. (alternately, please contact the editorial office should you prefer to provide hand-written signatures of each author, or if any of your co-authors cannot complete the verification for any reason) (required)

IMPORTANT: The submitting author has the authority to act on behalf of all co-authors and will ensure that all co-authors confirm this using the verification link in the submission confirmation email sent out to all authors, or via their author overview in this submission system.
